

2031 Cap's Forecast

During the Spring break of 2031, Cap retired to her little house in the county. Around her were woods, fields and a few farm buildings. She felt safer as soon as she turned off the highway onto her country lane. It helped her to put the troubles of the city out of her mind.

After a couple hours of wandering the yard and the house, Cap began a letter to her friends and supporters.

The Major Events which we are going to encounter this year are the following. First, the Pope will release the Third Secret. Then, he will be killed. A new Pope will be elected. He will be the angelic pastor of the prophecies. He will most probably immediately move to honor the Madonna's requests at Fatima. He will call for universal daily rosary and for all Catholics to do the Five First Saturdays. He will promise to Consecrate Russia to the Immaculate Heart of Mary on some date in 2032.

The Civil War in Europe will grow worse. Blood will flow in the streets. There will be massacres. Paris will burn. Many in France will beg the Pope to appoint a king. The Pope will name a man with royal lineage. He will summon him from outside France. When called, he will come forward. In numerous prophecies, he has been called the Great Monarch. Jahenny said that he will come in the thick of the storm.

Revolution in France

When Cap returned to campus, she spoke at the retreat center. It had been the home of a wealthy trader a century earlier, then it was donated to a monastery and later occupied by an order of nuns. The former chapel had suffered some neglect over the years. It was an appropriate setting for her message.

The Ecstatic of Tours

Cap began her presentation by speaking about the Ecstatic of Tours.

To describe the Revolution in France, I have chosen one excerpt from the writings of The Ecstatic of Tours because it sums up the struggle which is unfolding in front of us. She describes the future as if she were watching it unfold. Here is an excerpt from We Are Warned.

All we know of The Ecstatic of Tours is that she was a French nun. In 1882 using her nom de plume, her spiritual director published her revelations in a book called La Veille de la Victoire du Christ (On the Eve of the Victory of Christ).

Before the war breaks out again, food will be scarce and expensive. There will be little work for the workers, and fathers will hear their children crying for food. There will be earthquakes and signs in the sun. Toward the end, darkness will cover the earth...'

When everyone believes that peace is assured, when everyone least expects it, the great happenings will begin. Revolution will break out in Italy almost at the same time as in France. For some time, the Church will be without a Pope. England, too, will have much to suffer...'

The revolution will spread to every French town. Wholesale slaughter will take place. This revolution will last only a few months, but it will be frightful; blood will flow everywhere, because the malice of the wicked will reach its highest pitch. Victims will be innumerable. Paris will look like a slaughterhouse. Persecutions against the Church will be ever greater, but will not last long. All churches will be closed but only a few for a very short time in those towns where disturbances are the least. Priests will have to go into hiding, the wicked will try to obliterate anything religious, but they will not have enough time...'

"Many bishops and priests will be put to death. The archbishop of Paris will be murdered. Many other priests in Paris will have their throats cut because they will not have time to find a hiding place..."

“The wicked will be the masters for one year and a few months. In those days, France will receive no human assistance. She will be alone and helpless. At this juncture, the French people will turn back to God and implore the Sacred Heart of Jesus and Mary Immaculate. They will at last confess that He alone can restore peace and happiness....”

“The French people will ask for the good king. He who was chosen by God. He will come; this savior whom God has spared for France. This king who is not wanted now, because he is dear to God’s Heart. He will ascend to the throne. He will free the Church and reassert the Pope’s rights...”

The council will meet again after the victory. But this time, men will be obliged to obey. There will be only one flock and one shepherd. All men will acknowledge the Pope as the universal father, king of all peoples. Thus, mankind will be regenerated...” This ends the excerpt about The Ecstatic of Tours.

Revolution in Italy

Cap continued, “The Ecstatic of Tours is not alone in her vision of a civil war in Europe. There are many others. Their stories weave together like a tapestry. I would like to read to you a few more prophecies which capture the flavor of what Europe is about to experience.

Sister Elena Aiello was an Italian mystic and stigmatist who had many visions in the fifties and sixties. She said that ‘Italy will be severely tried by a great revolution, and Rome will be purified in blood for its many sins, especially those of impurity.

Cap was momentarily distracted by the sudden memory of something which had happened the night before. While she was writing about Aiello, Cap saw Jesus standing in the shadows several feet away. He spoke to her and said “they have converted the world into a scene of crimes.”ⁱ She had heard those words before. Jesus spoke them to Sister Aiello. She was stunned, but she took a sip of water and then carried on with her presentation.

In the 1600’s in Ecuador, there were the apparitions of Our Lady of Good Success. The Mother of God revealed to Mother Mary Anne of Jesus Torres: ‘there will be a terrible war in which the blood of priests and of religious will flow. . . wickedness will seem triumphant.” The Madonna’s words read like a contemporary description of the events of today.

The same was foretold by Sister Rose Asdente of Taggia, 1847: "There shall be great confusion of people against people, and nations against nations. The Russians shall come to make war on Italy . . . Priests and religious shall be butchered and the earth, especially in Italy, shall be watered with their blood."

Destroy Rome and Burn Churches

In the Seventeenth Century, there lived a German scholar and holy priest named Bartholomew Holzhauser. He has since been declared Venerable. Speaking of the future, Holzhauser said the following: 'These are the evil times, a century full of dangers and calamities. Heresy is everywhere, and the followers of heresy are in power almost everywhere... But God will permit a great evil against His Church: Heretics and tyrants will come suddenly and unexpectedly; they will break into the Church... They will enter Italy and lay Rome waste; they will burn down churches and destroy everything.' Priests massacred

Blessed Anna-Maria Taigi had a unique gift. She was shown a luminous sun in which she saw the book of knowledge. "Religion shall be persecuted, and priests massacred. Churches shall be closed, but only for a short time. The Holy Father shall be obliged to leave Rome. "

"Rome would be battered by revolutions...Millions of men would die by the sword in war and civil strife, other millions would perish in unforeseen death. "

Here are the words of a modern German mystic, Gottfried Von Werdenberg: "Approximately at the time of the Russian occupation of Austria, civil war will rage at its worst in Italy and France which are ruled over by godless extreme left-wing governments. The clergy is being persecuted. There will be mass murder and violent plunder."

Cap said that what they were witnessing in Europe would only get worse.

Pope Reveals the Third Secret

Cap explained that the Pope will reveal the Third Secret because he will see the Secret unfolding before him. The civil war will be raging and many will be killed. The Russians will have invaded Italy and their soldiers will be under orders to kill as many priests as they find.

Once, John Paul II told a private meeting of Catholics in Germany that he had not revealed the Secret "so as not to encourage the world power of Communism to make certain moves." If the Russians knew that the contents of the third secret predicted that they would successfully invade, then they would be encouraged to do so.

Cap continued “The Pope will see that there is no longer any reason to keep the Secret a secret. The Russians and their allies will kill the Pope in anger for having revealed the Third Secret. There is another reason for killing the Pope. The Russians will realize what will inevitably come next, which is the Consecration. The Consecration could cause their plans to unravel. It would be the one thing that could stop their plans for world conquest. And they will want to stop it. They will kill the Pope to prevent him from Consecrating Russia.

Sister Lucy is supposed to have predicted that the Third Secret would be revealed during a great war.

Hundred Year Rule and the Death of the Pope

Cap explained her thinking based on what she called the Hundred Year Rule. This was her third application of the rule. The first was the Great Sign in the sky of 2025. The second was the beginning of the European Civil War. The third would be the death of the pope. Lucy said that Jesus spoke to her about the fate of the pope. So, Cap felt it was important.

Cap quoted Lucy’s own words. “The following is drawn from The Whole Truth about Fatima Volume 2 Chapter 7, near footnote 56.

‘Terrible Revelation of the Summer of 1931: ‘They did not want to heed my request.’

In August 1931, Sister Lucy was not in good health. She was sent by her superiors to Rianjo, a small maritime city near Pontevedra, where she was to take some rest in a friendly house. It was undoubtedly there, in the chapel of Our Lady, where Lucy used to retire to pray, that Heaven manifested itself again.

First of all, let us quote from her letter of August 29, 1931, where the seer passes on to her bishop this message, which is of capital importance in the economy of the message of Fatima:

““My confessor orders me to inform Your Excellency of what took place a little while ago between the Good Lord and myself: as I was asking God for the conversion of Russia, Spain and Portugal, it seemed to me that His Divine Majesty said to me: “You console Me a great deal by asking Me for the conversion of those poor nations. Ask it also of My Mother frequently, saying: Sweet Heart of Mary, be the salvation of Russia, Spain, Portugal, Europe and the whole world. At other times say: By your pure and Immaculate Conception, O Mary, obtain for me the conversion of Russia, Spain, Portugal, Europe and the entire world.”

Cap commented "Sister Lucy said that Jesus spoke to her and said 'Make it known to My ministers that, given they follow the example of the King of France in delaying the execution of My request, they will follow him into misfortune. It will never be too late to have recourse to Jesus and Mary.'

"Sister Lucy is saying that because the Pope had not obeyed the command to consecrate Russia, he would suffer the same fate as the King of France.

This is the paragraph which anchors 2031 as the year that the Pope will be killed. Cap explained the rule of 100 years which resonates in the Fatima story. 1931 was the year that the Consecration of Russia ought to have happened. 1931 was the year that Our Lord predicted that the Pope would die. One hundred years later, the pope would die.

"Follow him into misfortune"

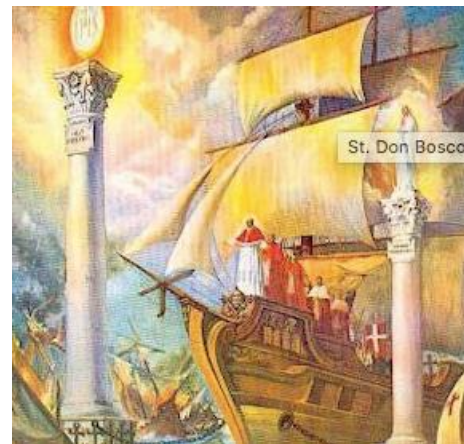

The fate will be the same as the King of France. The sovereign will be killed. So, will his aristocracy, who are the clergy, and his loyalists, who are the laity. Such a fate was announced in the part of the Third Secret, which was revealed by the Vatican in 2000. In the Vision of the Bishop in White, the Pope, on his knees at the foot of a big Cross, was "killed by a group of soldiers who fired bullets and arrows at him, and in the same way there died one after another the other bishops, priests, men and women religious, and various lay people of different ranks and positions."

"The mob will howl against the Pope, but it will be the Russians who decide to have him killed."

New Pope is elected

In the famous dream of the two pillars, St John Bosco foresaw that the new Pope would be elected soon after the death of the reigning pope. St John Bosco said 'But hardly is the Pontiff dead than another takes his place. The pilots, having met together, have elected the Pope so promptly that the news of the death of the Pope coincides with the news of the election of the successor. The adversaries begin to lose courage.' If this is true, then there will be not be a period without a Pope. He will be elected soon after the death of the previous Pope. He will move promptly to fulfill the Madonna requests at Fatima. He will call for daily rosary, the Five First Saturdays Devotion and for the Consecration of Russia. He will name a date sometime in 2032 to allow time for penance and reparation. There will be a deep sense of Repentance.

Repent.

There is a word in the Fatima writings which deserves special attention. I would like to bring your attention back to a message of Jesus to Lucy in 1932. His reference to the Consecration and to the King of France is powerful. There is a word in that message which is easily overlooked. The word is Repent. Let us listen again to the message. Sister Lucy: 'Later on, by means of an interior communication, Our Lord complainingly said to me: "They did not want to heed My request. Like the King of France, they will repent and do so, but it will be late. Russia will already have spread her errors throughout the world, causing wars and persecutions of the Church. The Holy Father will have much to suffer."

The word repent is a window into the process taking place within the Church. In 2031, the Pope reveals the Third Secret and is killed. The war against the Church and society explodes into widespread killing.

The Alonso Revelation

It brings to mind a blockbuster paragraph from the Whole Truth about Fatima: "The late Fr. Joaquín María Alonso, C.M.F, who held doctoral degrees in Philosophy and Theology from the Gregorian University, and who did not belong to any "traditional movement," wrote "An untimely revelation of the text would have aggravated further the two tendencies that continue to split the Church: a traditionalism that would have been helped by these apparitions that, in such a scandalous way, would have stopped the progress of the conciliar Church... Pope Paul VI thought it fitting and prudent to delay the revelation of the text for better times. Pope John XXIII declared that the text did not refer to his pontificate... and the following Popes did not consider that the moment was right to remove the veil of the mystery, in circumstances where the Church has not yet surmounted the frightful impact of the twenty years of the post- council, during which the crisis of the Faith has settled at all levels." The Whole Truth About Fatima, Vol. III, Chapter 5 p 712.

Alonso is saying that the revelation of the Third Secret will be the death knell of the Conciliar Church. It will repudiate Vatican II. The Secret would support the Traditionalist movement. There will be a shock and a great scandal. It will indict just about everybody of sin. The whole Church, high and low, will realize that it has been on the wrong track for seventy years. And each will be sorry for their part in the great evil which has befallen us.

War or Peace

It will be apparent that the Madonna offered a choice between peace or war. "If people will do what I request, ... there will be peace. If not, ... wars and persecution of the Church." The Madonna requested the Consecration of Russia and the establishment of the Devotion of the First Saturdays. The Church and the laity declined the Madonna's request. They made a colossal mistake. They chose the wrong path. The world is now in the process of being destroyed for their mistake.

Four Signs of Hope

But, there is hope. There are four things we have to look forward to. One, our great hope will be the Triumph of the Immaculate Heart. Second, Russia will be Consecrated and Converted. The Great Monarch will arrive in the Thick of the Storm. And we shall see the Angelic Pastor.

The Angelic Pastor

Here are some of the prophecies about the new Pope drawn from We Are Warned. He will be called the Angelic Pastor.

Holy

He will be a holy man who will inspire the whole world. Brother John of the Cleft Rock (14th Century) said this about him. 'God will raise up a holy Pope over whom the angels will rejoice. Enlightened by God, this man will reconstruct almost the entire world through his holiness and lead all to the true faith, and everywhere fear of God, virtue, and good morals will be dominant.'"

From Dalmatia

Rudolph Geckner said that the Angelic Pastor will come from Dalmatia, what is now called Croatia. Geckner said 'A Great prince of the north with a very powerful army will traverse all Europe, uproot every Republic, ^[1]_{SEP} and exterminate all rebels. His sword will be moved by Divine power and defends the Church of Jesus Christ. (...) He will combat on behalf of the true orthodox faith and shall subdue to his dominion the Mohammedan Empire. A new pastor of the universal Church will come from the shore (of Dalmatia) through a celestial prodigy and in simplicity of heart adorned with the doctrines of Jesus Christ. Peace will be restored to the world (...). (Rudolph Geckner, The Waves of the Mystical Bark, 1623 AD, p 310)

Celestial Prodigy

The words 'celestial prodigy' suggest that a celestial sign or heavenly light will shine on the priest selected by God to be the new Pope.

From a monastic order

St. Ignatius of Santhia (1686-1770) said that one rigid monastic order would survive. From it would come the new Pope. "All religious orders will be abolished except one having the rules of the most rigid and most severe institute of the ancient monks.... The Pope will be elected who shall be a man of great holiness and goodness of life selected from the surviving monastic order mentioned above."

12 new apostles

The Pope will send twelve new apostles out to preach to the whole world. Ignatius said that: 'Finally the Pope will select twelve subjects of his religion whom he will send through the world to preach missions. They shall have the power of converting nations to the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ excepting the Hebrews who are reserved for the end of the world.'

He will travel barefoot

John of Vatuquerro, of the 13th century, said that 'This Prince shall help him (the Holy Pontiff) in every way. (...) After many tribulations, a Pope shall be elected out of those who survived the persecutions. By his sanctity he will reform the clergy and the whole world shall venerate the Church for her sanctity, virtue and perfection. He will travel barefoot and be devoid of fear. Almost all unbelievers and the Jews will be converted and there will be one law, one faith, one life. All people will love one another and peace will last a long time...' You will notice that in Vatuquerro's sequence, there is the tribulation, then the death of the Pope and then the election of the New Pope, which is the same as our sequence."

Paris Burns

There are numerous prophecies about the burning of Paris. Julie Jahenny said that the burning of Paris would mark the point when the French Monarch would come forward. Here some of other prophecies about the burning of Paris."

Paris destroyed.

Fr. Nectou was the Jesuit Provincial in the South West of France, regarded as a Saint, Prophet and miracle worker. He died in 1777. His public reputation for holiness induced a young grieving mother, whose baby had just died to bring it in hope to Fr. Nectou. She persisted. It was attested by several witnesses that he raised the baby from the dead and returned it to its mother.

During this revolution, ... Paris will be destroyed so completely that twenty years afterwards fathers walking over its ruins with their children will be asked by them what kind of place that was; to whom they will answer: "My child, this was a great city which God has destroyed on account of her crimes. Yes, Paris will certainly be destroyed; but, before this happens, such signs and portents will be seen, that all good people will be induced to flee away from it."

Paris will burn like a torch.

Gottfried Von Werdenberg, a modern German visionary, said the following: "The social outcasts, the mob, are a danger for all countries which share borders with France and Italy. These murdering and plundering hordes show no mercy. They will also destroy Rome, and Paris, set alight by the mob, will burn like a torch. In any event due to the war, large cities and towns will be destroyed more or less. Survival is only possible in the country and in small villages."

Survival Only in the Country

As an aside, I would like to bring your attention to that last sentence. Werdenberg said 'Survival is only possible in the country and in small villages. When Paris burns, it would be good to have a place in the country.

Alois Irlmaier was a humble and devout well digger who lived in Bavaria. One day he was waiting for a friend. He saw Mary lean out of a picture on the wall and look at him. Thereafter, he could see sense underground streams. He was famous for his psychic abilities, and after World War II, many people sought his clairvoyant skills to locate their families and friends. The future appeared to Irlmaier as if in a movie.

Alois said that 'The city with the steel tower [Paris] will be set on fire by its inhabitants and will be leveled to the ground.' On another occasion, he said 'The city with the iron tower becomes the victim of the own people. They ignite everything. Revolution is, and everything is going wildly. The islands before the coast sink, because the water is quite wild. I see large holes in the sea, which will be filled, when the enormous waves return. The beautiful city at the blue sea sinks almost completely in the sea and in the dirt and sand, which the sea ejects. I see three cities sinking in the south, in the northwest and in the west.'

The City with the Iron Tower is on Fire

Alois: 'The large city with the high iron tower is on fire. But this has been done by the own people, not by those which came from the east. And, I can exactly see that the city is made equal to the ground. And in Italy it is going wildly too. They kill many people there and the Pope flees, but many clergymen will be killed, many churches collapse. "

"Yes, Paris shall certainly be destroyed, but before this occurs, such signs and portents shall be observed, that all good people will be induced to fly away from it."

Advent of the King

Cap took a small break. One of her friends came to her and said "My head is reeling. Can you slow it down?" Cap said "Unfortunately, not. These things are hurtling towards us. It is unavoidable." After a few minutes, she collected herself and continued the lecture.

There are numerous prophecies about a man who will reestablish the French Monarchy. He has been foreseen by many holy people across the centuries. He is probably the most prophesied person after Jesus. He will be called the Great Monarch. He will rule over France and the whole world. He will bring back the Fleur de Leis.

In the thick of the storm

Jahenny said that the king and a small group of noble defendants would make their appearance when Paris burned. She said that the king would come in the thick of the storm. One can assume that she means noble literally. We can assume that there has been a lot of discussion among the nobility about who should be the king. There are so many different bloodlines. There might be hundreds who could make a plausible claim. There are many in France who believe that the nation needs a king. The breakdown of society has made it apparent that maybe only a king can save France.

I attended a lecture given by a great niece of Julie Jahenny. She said that the King will be a direct descendant of King Louis XVI. The dauphin was thought to have died in prison but he was smuggled away and a body was placed in his cell.

Worldwide Restoration

Yves Dupont said that 'The restoration of Monarchy will not be a local affair; it will be a world-wide phenomenon...The republics and democracies will be over, communism and socialism a thing of the past...' This is hard to swallow for most Americans. We have been conditioned to think that democracy is the best form of government.

A foreigner

We do not know who The Great Monarch is. Jahenny says that he has been living outside France for a long time. In Jahenny's vision, Jesus said to him 'You who walked in a foreign land so long... ' "

A blood relative of Jesus

Cap continued. "Jahenny said that the king would be a Descendant of King David and therefore a blood relative of Jesus. 'The race of the Kings of France, the line of David, therefore the same one as Our Lord's and the Immaculate Virgin, divine in one of its members, it is natural that it should be this race to be called to reign over the world at the time of the great triumph of the Church.' "

St. Ignatius of Santhia (1686-1770) said 'The Great Monarch will be a descendant of the Carolingian line which has long been considered extinct.'"

He will wear a red cross and he will raise a great army.

He shall be the founder of a new religious order different from all the others. He shall divide it into three classes, namely: (1) Military knights, (2) Solitary priests, (3) most pious hospitaliers. This shall be the last religious order of the Church, and it will do more good for our holy religion than all other religious institutes. By force of arms he shall take possession of a great kingdom. He shall destroy the sect of Mahomet, extirpate all tyrants and heresies. He shall bring the world to a holy mode of life. There will be one-fold and one shepherd. He shall reign until the end of time. On the whole, in the whole earth there shall be only twelve kings, one emperor, one Pope. Rich gentlemen shall be few, but all saints. (...)"

Marvelous

Here is a quote from Bartholomew Holzhauser, Visions, 1646. 'When everything has been ruined by war; when Catholics are hard pressed by traitorous co-religionists and heretics, then the Hand of Almighty God will work a marvelous change, something apparently impossible according to human understanding. There will rise a valiant monarch anointed by God. He will be a Catholic, a descendant of Louis IX, yet a descendant of an ancient imperial German family, born in exile. He will rule supreme in temporal matters. The Pope will rule supreme in spiritual matters at the same time. Persecution will cease and justice shall rule. Religion seems to be suppressed, but by the changes of entire kingdoms,,,,, it will be made more firm...He will root out false doctrines and destroy the rule of Moslemism. His dominion will extend from the East to the West. All nations will adore God their Lord according to the Catholic teaching. There will be many wise and just men. The people will love justice, and peace will reign over the whole earth.'

He will wear the scapular of the Cross

From Jahenny. 'On returning to France, he wants to carry a large scapular representing the Sacred Heart and France imploring the aid of Heaven. This man will not be ashamed of his faith, he will not be ashamed to be a Christian. When Henry comes into France, the fighting will be terrible, the Centre Right and Centre Left will come as if to melt on the Prince with their irritations and their blackest anger. The mere sight of the scapular will be enough to overthrow them and Henry will pass freely with his court.' The Pope will summon him.

The King will be invited by the Pope and the bishops. He will receive a communication from the Holy Father that he has been called by God and that the Holy Church needs his help. It will be like the invitation of the Sacred Heart. But the bishops will be a small number."

Who will crown the king?

Jahenny says that it will not be the Archbishop of Paris. It will be a young pastor from a distant part of France. He will crown the King on the ruins of Paris. 'It is not a pastor of the Centre (i.e. a bishop of Paris) who will have the honor of crowning in glory the King, (The Great Monarch) the heir who has deserved to govern his country. The pastor will be young; 45 years will not have sounded. He will come from the diocese of Aix. The pastors who govern the dioceses today are no longer on their episcopal see. The glorious and worthy child of God who will crown the true King, on the ruins of the Centre, when the earth will be much deserted, will come from far way."

He will be poor.

St. Andrew Salos (450-515 AD) said that he will be poor. 'The Lord will raise a king from poverty.'

He will have endured many disappointments

Mother Josefa of Bourg (1857), Founder of the Congregation of the Sisters of the Savior, said that he will have endured many disappointments: 'God will choose a descendent of Constantine, Pepin and St Louis who has been tried by a long period of disappointment to come from exile to rule over Europe. He will have the sign of the cross on his breast and besides being a religious man, will be kind, wise, just and powerful. Under him the Catholic religion will spread as never before...

France will save the Church

It will be the role of France to defend the Church. 'Take notice that the Kingdom of France is predestined by God for the defense of the Roman Church, which is the only true Church of Christ. This kingdom shall one day be great among the kingdoms of the earth, and shall embrace all the limits of the Roman Empire, and shall submit all other kingdoms to its own scepter. It shall last until the end of time ..." Mother Bourg.

He will fight till he is 40

St. Cataldus, Ireland 7th Century, said the following. 'The Great Monarch will be in war till he is 40 years of age: a King of the House of Lilies, he will assemble great armies and expel tyrants from his empire. He will conquer England and other island empires. Greece he will invade and be made king thereof. Colchis, Cyprus, the Turks and Barbarians he will subdue and have all men worship the Crucified One. He will at length lay down his crown in Jerusalem....' ”

He comes from the East.

Cap continued “He is a descendant of Louis IX, who is commonly known as St Louis, and a descendant of an ancient German Imperial family. Probably a descendant of St Louis married a member of the German nobility. The Great Monarch is a distant relative of those bloodlines, fallen into obscurity and poverty. Jahenny said “King Henry V will march first. Jesus Christ will show him the road. He will come from the East and will go to the South. The friends of the King will march after him. Jahenny seems to say that three kings vie for the crown that, in the end, will remain with the legitimate King...”

He will be an Emperor with twelve kings

The Great Monarch will be the first among several rulers. St Francis of Paola said that there will be twelve kings. ‘He will be like the sun among the stars. His influence will spread over the whole earth. All in all, there will be twelve kings, one Emperor, one Pope and a few Princes. They will all lead holy lives...’

Hildegard

Peace will return to Europe when the white flower again takes possession of the throne of France.

Sinner and Saint

Jahenny said that ‘In his childhood he will be like a saint; in his youth, a great sinner; then he will be converted entirely to God and will do great penance; his sins will be forgiven him, and he will become a great saint.’

The Best Men on Earth

He shall be a great captain and prince of holy men, who shall be called “the holy Crossbearers of Jesus Christ,” with whom he shall destroy the Mohammedan sect and the rest of the infidels. He shall annihilate all the heresies and tyrannies of the world. He shall reform the Church of God by means of his followers, who shall be the best men upon earth in holiness, in arms, in science, and in every virtue, because such is the will of the Most High. They shall obtain the dominion of the whole world, both temporal and spiritual, and they shall support the Church of God until the end of time. (...) ' Jahenny

Cross Bearers.

There are a number of references in the prophetic literature about a New Order. They will be called Cruciferi because they have the Cross on their banners. The Order will consist of warrior knights, priests and hospitaliers.

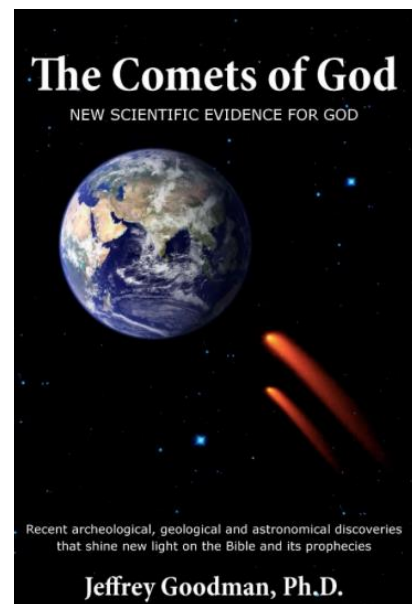

Sixth Trumpet

Before I go, I would like to address the possibility of punishment coming from the skies. Jeffrey Goodman, who wrote Comets of God, believed that when the Sixth Trumpet sounded, a voice from heaven would command the sixth angel to send four asteroids toward the river Euphrates. And they would bring in their wake 200 million boulders. The asteroids and boulders will slay a third part of men. So, it may be that a terrific hail storm of 100-pound meteors will pound the area of the Euphrates and dry up the river so that the kings of the east and their army may march across it.

As Cap walked away from the lecture, she turned to one of her friends.

There was one thing I forgot to say. Jahenny also said that the Monarch would consecrate France to the Sacred Heart. So, the consecration of France will finally be done. The King will probably also put the Sacred Heart on the flag of France just as Jesus requested three and a half centuries ago. So long a wait and so much misfortune. The history of Europe might have been radically different if the Sun King had done the request.”

That night as Cap drifted off to sleep, she had a dream about the Great Monarch. One of his relatives was trying to persuade him to step into the fray. The cousin said “You are the last of the royal line. Your bloodline goes all the way back to the Carolingian Dynasty. From there, it goes back to the house of David. You are a blood relative of Jesus of Nazareth. You cannot say no.” The discouraged descendant said “I have failed at everything I have ever tried to do. How do you expect me to rescue Europe?”
